PROMPTLY at 8:15 o'clock tonight, in St. Joseph's hall, the harp pupils of Sacred Heart academy will give a recital, to which the public is cordially invited to attend. A most artistic program has been arranged, and the event promises to be one of the most pleasing events musically of this season.

The second class of drama of the Salem Woman's club, under the leadership of Mrs. E. P. Lathrop, closed its season's work Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Roy Burton, 625 Union street. A feature of the afternoon was the talk given by Mrs. Carlton, who described the literary side of her recent trip to the Panama exposition. Mothers plays and a general study of drama has occupied the time of this drama class this year, papers dealing with these subjects being given Tuesday by Mrs. Burton, Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, Mrs. Blanche Howard, Mrs. Donald Miles and Miss Athena Moore. Mrs. William Kirk, who has the first drama class, will close her work one week from Monday.

Among those already planning on attending from the First Methodist church are Mrs. Edwin Stierwood, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. V. G. Holt, Mrs. G. H. Alden and Mrs. Ira Morton. It is expected that numerous anti parties will be formed, going down for one or both days' events. A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. John Savage, Dr. and Mrs. B. P. Pound, Miss Vera Couder and W. H. Prunk, motored to Gervais Monday night to attend a dancing party.

The next event of social importance in military circles is the dancing party to be given Wednesday evening, April 14, in the armory, given by Company M. O. N. G. Seven hundred and fifty invitations have been issued, in the form of programs, but through an error they give one the impression of being composed of waiters and two-steps. The committee in charge, Lieutenant Neer, Sergeant Allen and Corporal

Wygant, announce that the numbers will be made up of both old and new dances. This event is to be followed by another and more elaborate ball, to take place June 8th. Both affairs are given to raise money to take M. C. party to the Panama-Pacific exposition, part of the necessary $500 having already been secured.

EMPLOYERS ARE ENCOURAGED TO AVOID ACCIDENTS

Industrial Accident Commission Explains Changes In Compensation Act

Under the new rate schedule, embraced in the amendatory act of the workmen's compensation act as adopted by the last legislature, which becomes effective July 1 next, there are 15 rates of contribution for employers, ranging from 50 cents to $8, based upon the hazard of the various industries. Under this new rating the workmen's contribution will be one cent for each day or part of day employed. The industrial accident commission is today sending out copies of the workmen's compensation act as amended to the 4541 employers of the state who have heretofore taken advantage of the act, calling attention to the changes made in the rates and other provisions as amended by the last legislature.

"To encourage accident prevention," says the commission, "the amended law provides that whenever for a period of 12 months the amounts paid out or set apart on account of injuries to the workmen of an employer do not exceed 50 per cent of such employer's contribution, his rate shall be reduced 10 per cent; if such record be maintained a second year another like reduction will be made. But if the commission finds an employer wilfully fails to comply with the law regulating the use of safety appliances, he shall, regardless of his accident record, forfeit his right to a reduction. If the employer's record for the present year is such that not more than 50 per cent of his contributions have been paid out on account of injuries to his workmen, his rate will be subject to a reduction of 10 per cent on July 1 next."

It is also provided that whenever there is in the Accident Fund an amount sufficient to meet all payments then accrued, with a 30 per cent surplus, all employers who have contributed to the fund for the preceding six months shall be exempt from contributions for the current calendar month.

Section 25, as amended, makes compensation the workmen's exclusive remedy, and the Commission must report violations of the law relative to safety, etc., to the prosecuting attorney of the district in which they occur.

Under revised Section 31, an employer whose business is not named in this act can request the Commission to fix a rate applicable to his business, and if the rate so fixed is satisfactory, he then can file his election to become subject to the act and to pay such agreed rate. This will permit those engaged in occupations not listed to come under the protection of the law, at a rate based upon the hazard of that occupation or business.

Attention is directed to Section 16, which provides that employers shall be subject to the act to and including June 30th of each year, unless written notice of rejection is given the Commission at least 60 days prior to that date.

TWO PLEAD GUILTY AND ARE SENTENCED

Robinson and Shultz Waive Time—Other News About County Courthouse

Jack Robinson, who was indicted on a charge of larceny of a Golding was arraigned in Department No. 1 of the circuit court this morning and pleaded guilty. He waived time for the imposition of sentence and Judge Kelly sentenced him to from one to 10 years in the penitentiary. Robinson will probably be taken to the penitentiary soon to begin serving his sentence. The horse in question was stolen from the Page pasture near Gervais and passed through several owners before it was finally located. The theft was traced to Robinson.

John Shultz pleaded guilty to assault with a dangerous weapon and was given a sentence in the county jail of from four months to one year. In consideration of the fact that Shultz has already served over five months in the county jail the prisoner was paroled by Judge Kelly. Shultz made an attack on George Brown of Champoux with a hatchet and for a time after the incident the injured man was in a critical condition.

Cecil Bailey and N. Lehr were arrested in this city yesterday evening by deputy sheriff W. L. They finally decided to leave town but forgot to leave the overcoat and the arrest was the result. They were taken from a Southern Pacific train at the depot here.

Mysterious Suicide May Cause Sensation

San Francisco, April 9.—Mystery surrounds the suicide here early today of a woman said to be Mrs. Chase Garfield, in her apartments in the fashionable Buckingham hotel here. She was found dying at midnight, the victim of poison, and expired a few hours later at St. Francis hospital.

The suicide was revealed by the sudden appearance at the apartment house of a mysterious woman, who rushed on the door of Dr. E. C. Hynes apartment and said: "There is a woman in No. 211 who has swallowed poison."

The doctor followed her into Mrs. Garfield's suite. While he was attending Mrs. Garfield the mysterious woman disappeared.

The police are seeking her, as well as Robert Mitchell, with whom Mrs. Garfield was friendly. Just before she died Mrs. Garfield was heard to murmur, "Mitchell has left for across the bay."

The motive impelling her to take the poison has not been learned. She left no note or other evidence indicating her reason.

Sensational developments are looked for. A mysterious long distance telephone message from Oakland reached the police during the day, adding further uncertainty to the case. A man, who refused to give his name, stated that while he was crossing San Francisco bay yesterday a woman staggered against him, and when he questioned her told him she had taken poison in an Oakland hotel several days ago and was still suffering from its effects. The description he gave of the woman tallies with that of Mrs. Garfield.

The man said the woman declared she intended to "make a good job of it" as soon as she reached San Francisco.

The police found a number of torn letters, addressed to one woman, in her apartments.

The police declared this afternoon they had pieced together torn portions of a special delivery letter found in the woman's room. It shed much light on the reason for the suicide.

"I asked her little boy," one portion of the note read, "why he did not write to his mamma. He replied that he did not see any reason why he should, because she evidently did not care for him any more than she did for me. Why do you live up there in that wicked city of extravagance and night life, spending your husband's money on fine clothes? Please leave the life of the cafes and the bright lights and come home to your husband and your boy."

Daughter of Seattle Surgeon.

Seattle, Wash., April 8.—Mrs. Chase Garfield, who committed suicide in San Francisco last night is the daughter of Dr. F. B. Whiting, prominent surgeon of Seattle and Alaska. Dr. Whiting was the surgeon in charge of construction of the White Pass and Yukon railroad.

Mrs. Whiting's first intimation of her daughter's death was when the United Press bulletin conveying the report was read to her over the telephone. She said her daughter and her husband had left Seattle for Los Angeles more than a year ago and he was in the automobile business there. So far as she knows there was no domestic trouble, and she frequently received letters from both her daughter and Garfield. The last letter was received about two weeks ago.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept Her Locks Youthful, Dark, Glossy and Thick with Common Garden Sage and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Proprietary hair dyes, though, at home in money and trouble, for 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.
